Unfortunately the Chesters Got Talent evening is not going ahead this year - HOWEVER - we are still having CELEBRATION Services for HARVEST on Sunday 30th September at 10:30am and 6:00pm and hope to demonstrate our Church and Community's love and generosity once again by bringing items for the FOOD BANK.

Lets make our contribution, and that of the Tesco shoppers responding to our request, another bumper act of giving with love.

The items required are:

IN VERY SHORT SUPPLY:

Potatoes, Spaghetti, Tinned sponge puddings

ALSO REQUIRED:

Tinned meat, Tinned fish, Tinned vegetables, Tinned fruit, Instant mashed potato, Cooking sauces, Tinned soup, Tinned tomatoes, Spaghetti in sauce, Fruit Juices, Tinned rice puddings, Jam, Custard, Milk (UHT or powdered), Sugar, Instant coffee, Tea Bags
Breakfast cereal, Biscuit / snack bars
Chocolate / sweets, Nuts / crackers

At present no toiletries or sanitary items required

Thank you so much.

Although the performing side of Chester's Got Talent is not taking place, we would love to display the various talents (craft, art, woodwork, etc) which people have during the Harvest Celebration services on 30th September.

Items can be brought on the morning of Friday 28th or from 6:00pm on Saturday 29th September where they will be arranged for display during the services.

An expression of thanks to God for talents, as well as food, is good to celebrate.

Many thanks, Brenda Wood

Get knitting!

Once again, we are asking people to get involved with the Christmas Angels project - giving away knitted angels as a Christmas gift for people in our communities.

The Angels will be going out a few days before Christmas, as they did last time, but it would be great if people started knitting now, so we can give even more angels out this year.

The knitting pattern is available online, at www.christmasangel.net but you can also contact the circuit office (clsadmin@webwhistle.co.uk) and they can send copies out to churches if needed.

"Happy knitting."

Flooding in an ever changing climate!

25th October from 11:00am - 3:00pm

Whether you believe in climate change or not come along to this family event. Find out more about what changes may happen in the world around us and how this will relate to our communities.

Meet some of the emergency responders and hear about how they aim to deal with the change.

Everyone welcome. Activities for children and some refreshments will be provided.

Includes:

- ✓ Exhibitions from organisations like the Wear Rivers Trust, Environment Agency and the Red Cross.
- ✓ Tea, coffee and refreshments.
- ✓ Activity corner; informative games for children.
