A Quotation to think about as you prepare for worship

Freedom is not the ability to do whatever you want. Freedom is the strength of character to do what is good, true, noble, and right.

Matthew Kelly (b. July 1973)

Wellbeing Sessions

(Please note change to start date)

Are the effects of the lockdowns and restrictions imposed by Covid still leaving you feeling a bit anxious and uncertain? Do you find the prospect of dark nights and short days over the next few months a bit depressing?

If so, this could be for you.

Many people over the last two years have suffered from social isolation, anxiety, loneliness, a loss of confidence or are just feeling very low. Working with a team from Durham who are specialists in these areas we have arranged six 'taster' sessions which will provide a range of creative activities (art, craft etc.) beginning on 8th February.

You do not need any particular skill or ability – you would not be preparing something to be shown at an exhibition! Experience has shown that just taking part in creative activities can improve self-confidence, reduce anxiety and raise self-esteem.

If you are interested please contact the Church Office. The sessions, which are free, will be limited to twelve people, therefore, it's advisable to contact the office as soon as possible.

The monthly prayer meeting for children and families work at Chester-le-Street Methodist Church will be held on Zoom 8:00 - 8:30pm on Monday 17th January.

We will focus on schools but can pray for anything!

The codes are:

Meeting ID: 983 8863 8627

Passcode: CFPray

Hope to see you on screen,
